By these investigations I have been confirmed in the conviction, that the present movement, in these last churches, towards liturgical forms will not reach its purpose by the imitation of any existing liturgy. Its aim can only be reached by means of a teachable spirit, which merges individual prejudices in a reverent appreciation of all that the church has prized in the past, and in a readiness to adopt suggestions from her best experiences, while it is free to mould the elements of worship, which come to us from manifold...
