Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.1in. x 0.6in. QUIT SCHOOL! is designed to make you laugh while you are thinking. . . eight humorous short stories, both tough and tender, that can change your life if you laugh more and think less. In the tradition of J. D. Salinger, QUIT SCHOOL! reveals the enduring lessons learned outside the classroom. . . how wisdom really emerges. Eight lessons essential to all human happiness are hidden in the bumbling adventures of John the Crabber White, a young boy growing up in a small seaside town along the south shore of Long Island, New York. Bennett takes you on an emotional roller coaster ride, laughing all the way, with an array of Damon Runyonesque characters from the 1950s, only to set you down with a thud as you emerge into the light. The lessons are deceptively simple but sudden, like a slap while your head is turned. In Bennetts novel, a young boy from the shores of Long Island struggles with family tragedy, first love and even the supernatural. . . adventures that help him grow up fast, whether he likes it or not. Stories with genuine heart. . . a blend of the humorous and the sentimental, the devastating and the hopeful. Bennetts eagerness and sincerity shine through, giving some of the stories impressive power. KIRKUS REVIEWS I usually have a problem with short stories: when Ive read one I find it all too easy to put the book down and not return to it. This didnt happen with QUIT SCHOOL! Earlier in the week I had one of those dreadful days that leave you wound up and cross and I reached for a book to relax with....
