Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life in rural 1930s Riverton, Alabama was no easy task, especially for a World War I veteran s widow with seven sons. When Ray Hays and his twin brother witness their father s burial, they learn at the tender age of four the reality of life: death. But with their strong-willed mother, Mama Hays, and their other brothers, they also learn that the bonds of family can overcome any adversity, even the tiresome load of work in cotton-picking season. Then, in 1951, twins Ray and Roy make a decision that will forever change their lives. Soon, they re on the frontlines of Korea, using the bonds of brotherhood--that of blood and of the fraternity of soldiers--to fight for survival and freedom. Then, Ray is hit with the blast of shrapnel, leaving his face marred and his body within inches of death. After months of hospitalization and a long journey around the world, he must face life in Alabama as a man forever changed by the brutalities of war. When he returns to his mother s home in Cherokee, the town and everyone in it appears the same, but things aren t as they seem. Humbled by the scars of war, this casualty must learn the true meaning of life, love, and home. The Long Journey Home is a memoir not to be forgotten.
